PROSPECT, CT – The 2013 schedule for the Design-2-Part Shows has been announced.

Eleven shows include six annual events, two biennial and two triennial shows, and an inaugural event in Minneapolis June 5 and 6.
D2P will hold events in Grapevine (Dallas), TX, Atlanta, GA, Schaumburg, IL, Santa Clara, CA, Pasadena, CA, and Marlborough (Boston), MA.

The Southern California Design-2-Part Show rotates between Pasadena and Long Beach every other year.

Other shows include Monroeville (Pittsburgh), PA, Greenville, SC, Phoenixville (Philadelphia), PA and Covington, KY.

The shows include an exhibit of local and national job shops and contract manufacturers. Exhibiting companies will showcase design-through-manufacturing services, featuring more than 300 product categories for the metal, plastics, rubber and electronics industries.
