Koh Young Training Seminar to be Held in CA

Written by

Tuesday, 29 January 2008 09:49 - Last Updated Tuesday, 29 January 2008 09:53

COSTA MESA, CA – A leading Koh Young Technology distributor will conduct advanced training on the OEM's solder paste inspection systems next month.

Christopher Associates will hold the training seminar March 10-12, in Costa Mesa.

In addition to training on this SPI system, the seminar will emphasize recent software improvements including SPC software, as well as new hardware introductions and technology improvements.

For more information, contact angela.maniaci@christopherweb.com .